Section 2: General Instructions to Bidders

GENERAL
1. About WHO	The World Health Organization (WHO) was established in 1948 as a specialized agency of the United Nations. The objective of WHO (www.who.int) is the attainment by all peoples of the highest possible level of health. "Health", as defined in the WHO Constitution, is a state of complete physical, mental and social well-being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity. WHO's main function is to act as the directing and coordinating authority on international health work.
2. Scope of ITB	Bidders are invited to submit a bid for the goods specified in Section 5: Schedule of Requirements, in accordance with this Invitation to Bid (ITB). A summary of the scope of the bid is included in Section 3: Data Sheet. Bidders shall adhere to all the requirements of this ITB, including any amendment made in writing by WHO.
3. Interpretation of the ITB	This ITB is conducted in accordance with Policies and Procedures of WHO, a summary of which is accessible at WHO's website: WHO Procurement: principles and processes. Any bid submitted will be regarded as an offer by the bidder and does not constitute or imply the acceptance of the bid WHO. WHO is under no obligation to award a contract to any bidder as a result of this ITB. Bidders are expected to examine all instructions, forms, specifications, terms and conditions contained within this WHO solicitation document. Failure to comply with these documents shall be at the bidder's risk and may affect the evaluation of the bids or may result in the rejection of the bid.
4. Eligible bidders	Bidders shall have the legal capacity to enter into a binding contract with WHO. All WHO suppliers must abide to the UN Supplier Code of Conduct, which is available at the following link: UN Supplier Code of Conduct. In addition, bidders shall submit a signed Self Declaration form, included in this ITB. Bidders will be excluded if: • They are bankrupt, undergoing court administration, have suspended business, are under creditor arrangements, or in similar situations under national law. • They or individuals with decision-making power have been found guilty of fraud, corruption, involvement in criminal organizations, money laundering, terrorism-related offenses, child labor, or human trafficking. • They or such individuals have been found guilty of financial irregularities. • They misrepresent or fail to provide required information under this ITB or during evaluation. • They have a conflict of interest, as determined solely by WHO. This includes associations with firms involved in preparing specifications for this procurement or any other conflicting situation. • They appear on sanction or ineligibility lists, including the UN Security Council, UN Ineligibility List, World Bank's non-responsible vendors list, or World Bank ineligible firms and individuals list. WHO may decide to exclude bidders for other reasons.
SOLICITATION DOCUMENT
5. Clarification of ITB	Bidders may request clarifications on any of the ITB documents no later than the date indicated in Section 3: Data Sheet. Any request for clarification must be sent in writing in the manner indicated in Section 3: Data Sheet. There shall be no individual presentation by or meeting with bidders until after the closing date for submission of bids. From the date of issue of this bid to the final selection, contact with WHO officials concerning the ITB process shall not be permitted, other than through the submission of queries as per the process described above, and/or through a possible presentation or meeting called for by WHO, in accordance with the terms of this ITB.
6. Amendment of ITB	At any time prior to the deadline of bid submission, WHO may for any reason, such as in response to a clarification requested by a bidder, modify the ITB in the form of an amendment to the ITB. Amendments will be made available to all prospective bidders. If the amendment is substantial or for other reasons, WHO may extend the Deadline for submission of bids.

PREPARATION OF BIDS
7. Cost of preparation of bid	The bidder shall bear all costs related to the preparation and/or submission of the bid, regardless of whether its bid is selected or not. WHO shall not be responsible or liable for those costs, regardless of the conduct or outcome of the procurement process.
8. Language	The bid, as well as any and all related correspondence exchanged by the bidder and WHO, shall be written in the language(s) specified in Section 3: Data Sheet.
9. Documents comprising the bid	The bid shall comprise of the forms requested in Section 7: Bidding Forms as well as any associated documentation requested in the ITB.
10. Prices	WHO is entitled by reason of the Privileges and Immunities it enjoys, subject to the conditions included in the WHO General Terms and Conditions (Section 6). During bidding, Bidders must submit prices excluding taxes. However, in jurisdictions / countries where VAT is mandatory, as evidenced by the Bidder, the selected Bidder will include VAT on invoices to WHO. The respective Finance team at Headquarters, Regional Office, or Country Office, will handle refund claims with the relevant authorities in accordance with applicable tax laws and procedures in that jurisdiction / country. Any quantity or other discounts (e.g.: volume discounts) shall be clearly indicated. Prices quoted by the bidder shall be fixed during the bidder's performance of the contract. Any adjustment or revision to the prices shall only be made effective upon agreement based on written amendment signed by both parties.
11. Bid currencies	Prices may be quoted in US Dollar, or any currency of the bidder's choice, unless otherwise stipulated in Section 3 Bid data Sheet. However, for the purposes of comparison of all offers WHO will convert the currency quoted in the offers to USD, in accordance with the UN Operational Rate of Exchange on the closing date for bid submission specified in Section 3: Data Sheet.
12. Bid validity period	Bids shall remain valid for the period specified in Section 3: Data Sheet, commencing on the deadline for submission of bids. A bid valid for a shorter period may be rejected by WHO and rendered non-responsive. During the bid validity period, the bidder shall maintain its original bid without any change, including the availability of the key personnel, the proposed rates and the total price. In exceptional circumstances, prior to the expiration of the bid validity period, WHO may request bidders to extend the period of validity of their bids
13. Joint Venture or Consortium	Two or more entities may form a joint venture or consortium and submit a joint bid offering to jointly provide the goods described in the bid. Such a bid must be submitted in the name of one member of the consortium - hereinafter the "lead organization". The lead organization will be responsible for undertaking all negotiations and discussions with, and be the main point of contact for, WHO. The lead organization and each member of the consortium will be jointly and severally responsible for the proper performance of the contract.
14. Partial bids	Bidders must offer goods and/or services for the total requirement requested under Section 5: Schedule of Requirements unless if so stated in Section 3: ITB Data Sheet. Bids offering only part of the requirements may be rejected unless permitted otherwise in Section 3: ITB Data Sheet.
15. Alternative bids	Unless otherwise specified in Section 3: Data Sheet, alternative bids shall not be considered. If submission of alternative bid is allowed in Section 3: Data Sheet, a bidder may submit an alternative bid, but only if it also submits a bid conforming to the ITB requirements. Where the conditions for its acceptance are met, or justifications are clearly established, WHO reserves the right to award a contract based on an alternative bid.
16. Pre-bid conference	When appropriate, a pre-bid conference will be conducted at the date, time and location and according to any instructions specified in Section 3: Data Sheet. WHO will not issue any formal answers to questions from bidders regarding the ITB or bid process during the pre-bid conference. All responses to questions raised prior, during the bidders' conference and or up to the deadline for clarification shall be submitted in accordance with Article 5 (Clarification of ITB).
17. Site inspection	When appropriate, a site inspection will be conducted at the date, time and location and according to any instructions specified in Section 3: Data Sheet.

SUBMISSION AND OPENING OF BIDS
18. Instruction for bid submission	The bidder shall submit a duly signed and complete bid comprising the documents and forms in accordance with requirements in Section 3: Clause 18. The Price Schedule shall be submitted together with the Technical Bid. Bidders must be aware that the mere act of submission of a bid, in and of itself, implies the bidder has accessed, read, understood and agrees to comply with WHO's Purchase Order : General Conditions, which are available on the WHO website .
19. Deadline for bid submission	Complete bids must be received by WHO in the manner, and no later than the date and time, specified in Section 3: Data Sheet. It shall be the sole responsibility of the bidders to ensure that their bid is received by the closing date and time. No late submissions of bids will be possible or accepted. Bidders are therefore advised to ensure that they have taken all steps to submit their bids sufficiently in advance of the above closing date and time.
20. Modification and withdrawal of bids	The bidder may withdraw its bid any time after the bid's submission and before the tender closing date of the bids, provided a written and signed notice of the withdrawal is received by WHO prior to the closing date for the submission of bids. No bid may be withdrawn in the interval between the closing date for submission of bids and the expiration of the bid validity period.
21. Bid opening	Bids will be opened by a committee formed by WHO.
EVALUATION OF BIDS
22. Clarification of bids	WHO may, at its discretion, ask any bidder for clarification of any part of its bid. The request for clarification and the response shall be in writing. No change in price or substance of the bid shall be sought, offered or permitted during this exchange.
23. Evaluation of bids	WHO shall conduct the evaluation on the basis of the bids received according to the evaluation criteria in Section 4. Evaluation of bids shall be undertaken by WHO in the following steps: a) Preliminary examination b) Evaluation of eligibility and qualification criteria c) Evaluation of technical bids d) Evaluation of prices of bids WHO's determination of a bid's compliance will be based on the contents of the bid itself. A substantially compliant bid is one that meets or exceeds the requirements in the Schedule of Requirements and the Evaluation Criteria without material deviation, reservation, or omission. Provided that a bid is substantially compliant, WHO may waive any minor informalities, errors or omissions in the Bid that do not constitute a material deviation.
24. Due diligence	WHO reserves the right to undertake a due-diligence assessment, aimed at determining, to its satisfaction, the validity of the information provided by the bidder recommended for award, and to reject a bidder on the basis of these findings. Such exercise shall be fully documented and may include, but need not be limited to, all or any combination of the following: a) Verification of accuracy, correctness and authenticity of information provided by the bidder. b) Inquiry and reference checking with previous clients on the performance on on-going or completed contracts. c) Physical inspection of the bidder's offices, branches or other places where business transpires, with notice to the bidder.
25. Samples	Where required as per Section 3: ITB Data Sheet, free, non-returnable samples shall be provided by the bid submission deadline for evaluation and testing WHO or their representative, of the item and/or the packing and packaging, prior to any award. Samples will be subject to technical review and laboratory analysis where appropriate. Samples provided to WHO are non-returnable, unless otherwise stated. Samples should be marked with the ITB number. If a bidder fails to provide samples or documents requested by WHO in a timely manner, WHO may declare the bid unsuccessful.

AWARD OF CONTRACT
26. Award criteria	In the event of a Contract award, WHO shall award the Contract to a bidder who has been determined as eligible and qualified and whose bid has been determined to be the lowest priced, substantially compliant offer to the ITB. However, WHO reserves the right to accept or reject any bid, split the award and to annul the bidding process and reject all bids at any time prior to contract award, without thereby incurring any liability to the affected bidder or bidders or any obligation to inform the affected bidder or bidders of the grounds for WHO's action. WHO shall not be obliged to award the contract to the lowest priced offer
27. Right to enter into negotiations	"WHO reserves the right to negotiate with one or more bidders, including on bid terms or the removal of certain items under this ITB, provided such changes do not result in any material deviations from the solicitation.
28. Right to vary requirements at time of award	WHO reserves the right at the time of award of contract to extend, reduce or otherwise revise the quantity of the goods called for under this ITB without any change in the base price or other terms and conditions offered by the selected bidder.
29. Notification of award	WHO will notify the successful bidder(s) in writing by email that its bid has been accepted. After signing the contract with successful Bidder, the unsuccessful Bidders will be sent a regret notification.
30. Publication of Contract Award	WHO publishes on its contract awards webpage the list of contracts for acquired goods and services of a value of USD 25 000 or more. This information is published with due observance of the requirements of confidentiality and security. Further procurement data about WHO can be obtained through WHO's Procurement Report or at UNGM's Annual Statistical Report on UN Procurement .
31. Performance security	This is not mandatory; however, if specified in Section 3: Data Sheet, the successful bidder must provide a performance security in the stated amount and form within the specified timeframe after receiving the contract from WHO.
32. Payment Terms	100% within 30 days after receipt of goods, or services upon receipt of invoice as well as receipt and acceptance of goods or services, or upon receipt of required shipping documentation, depending on the Incoterm used.
33. Debriefing	WHO does not routinely provide debriefings for unsuccessful bidders. However, in the case of tenders over $300,000 or complex tenders, WHO may decide to conduct a debriefing upon a written request by an unsuccessful bidder. The request for a debriefing must be made in writing and within 30 calendar days of the bidder's receipt of notification from WHO that it was not awarded the contract. The purpose of the debriefing is to discuss the strengths and weaknesses of the bidder's submission, in order to assist the bidder in improving its future bids for WHO procurement opportunities. The content of other bids and how they compare to the bidder's submission shall not be discussed. Debriefing could be conducted in writing or by means of a meeting.
34. Bid complaint	When a supplier believes that WHO did not follow its own procurement rules the supplier may choose to raise a formal complaint. The Procurement Complaint Mechanism is only available to suppliers who: • Participated in a competitive procurement process and were not awarded a contract; AND • The value of the contract award is higher than US$ 300,000. A formal complaint must be submitted in writing within one month of the notification of the outcome of the competitive bidding process, to the following email address: procurementcomplaint@who.int and must include the minimum information detailed on the WHO website (WHO Procurement: frequently asked questions).

Form F: Confidentiality undertaking

1. The World Health Organization (WHO), acting through its Country Office of Nigeria, has access to certain information relating to Procurement of ICT Items - Training and Deployment of Electronic National Laboratory Information System (eNLIS) Across Selected Public Health Laboratories in Nigeria which it considers to be proprietary to itself or to entities collaborating with it ("the Information").
2. WHO is willing to provide the Information to the Undersigned for the purpose of allowing the Undersigned to prepare a response to the Invitation to Bid (ITB) provided that the Undersigned undertakes to treat the Information as confidential and proprietary, to use the Information only for the aforesaid Purpose and to disclose it only to persons who have a need to know for the Purpose and are bound by like obligations of confidentiality and non-use as are contained in this Undertaking.
3. The Undersigned undertakes to regard the Information as confidential and proprietary to WHO or parties collaborating with WHO, and agrees to take all reasonable measures to ensure that the Information is not used, disclosed or copied, in whole or in part, other than as provided in paragraph 2 above, except that the Undersigned shall not be bound by any such obligations if the Undersigned is clearly able to demonstrate that the Information:
 - a) was known to the Undersigned prior to any disclosure by WHO to the Undersigned (as evidenced by written records or other competent proof);
 - b) was in the public domain at the time of disclosure by or for WHO to the Undersigned.
 - c) becomes part of the public domain through no fault of the Undersigned; or
 - d) becomes available to the Undersigned from a third party not in breach of any legal obligations of confidentiality (as evidenced by written records or other competent proof).
4. The Undersigned further undertakes not to use the Information for any benefit, gain or advantage, including but not limited to trading or having others trading in securities on the Undersigned's behalf, giving trading advice or providing Information to third parties for trade in securities.
5. At WHO's request, the Undersigned shall promptly return any and all copies of the Information to WHO.
6. The obligations of the Undersigned shall be of indefinite duration and shall not cease on termination of the above mentioned ITB process.
7. Notwithstanding any specific provision herein, this Undertaking and any dispute arising therefrom or relating thereto shall be governed by general principles of law, to the exclusion of any single national system of law. Any dispute arising from or relating to the Undertaking, including its validity, interpretation, or application, shall, unless amicably settled, be subject to conciliation. In the event the dispute is not resolved by conciliation within thirty (30) days, the dispute shall be settled by arbitration. The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the modalities to be agreed upon by the parties or, in the absence of agreement within thirty (30) days of written communication of the intent to commence arbitration, with the rules of arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce. The parties shall accept the arbitral award as final.
8. Nothing in this Undertaking shall constitute or be deemed to constitute a waiver of any of the privileges and immunities enjoyed by WHO under any source of law, or as a submission to the jurisdiction of any national court or tribunal.
